1 C.P. Culver Bicycle Archive

Charles R. Culver (July 19, 1868 - Dec 25, 1961), archive. He was an early high wheel cycle racer (once held the record Springfield to Boston), promoter, trainer, inventor of the "double loope" and "cycle wheel". He also taught fencing, wrestling and bicycle racing at Yale. Mr. Culver was also an automobile pioneer, working for Knox Auto Co., and participated in the first Gilidden Tour. In 1910 he presided as president of the Pierce Arrow Co. of Springfield. Achieve contains, early photo portraits of Culver, scrapbooks concerning early bicycle, auto and athletic endeavors. Also features a large collection of 19th C. correspondence with the Pope Mfg. Co. concerning bicycle racing, racers, machines, parts, and consignments. The Pope achieve bears signatures of Arthur Pattison, Mark Reeves, Geo. Pope, W. Atwood, J. Cox, Albert Pope, racers mentioned including: Mac Duffie, Pierce, Adams, Tenzler, Schade, Newton, Anderson, Ducker, Elkes, Major Taylor, The Butler Brothers, McLeod, Ingraham, Moran, etc.. Approximately 140 pages of early racing (C. 1896 - 1905), this material gives an insider look into early cycle racing history as to relationships of factory to team correspondence. A four page letter from Eddie Macduffie detailing riding contract incentives. Photo archive of over 40 photos from Brussels Belgium tour 1893, documenting the opening of the first cement track (attended by King Leopold II). Also includes newspaper articles and contract from promoter for the inaugural race. An outstanding photo of King Leopold II with his wife greeting the team is included. Other historically significant items include, club anniversary ephemera, photos, postcards, race programs, a 13" x 17" period photo ("Springfield Bicycle Clubs Diamond Tournament"). Also includes Culvers L.A.W. card. Culver, produced "Culvers Cycle Racing Rollers", a race series including the classic Elks vs. Butler race, a 15" x 13" photo highlights this period. Another Culver invention was the "Devil's Wheel". Achieve also includes a 1903 English poster (30" x 20"), patent drawings, promotional introductions, newspaper clippings, postcards etc.. Also included is a small archive of Charles "Mile A Minute" Murphy including a pamphlet, 3 page letter from Murphy to Culver (1946) detailing his famous record and newspaper clippings. A historically significant archive in good condition. Estimate: 4,000.00 - 6,000.00
