- 347 Hub Cap From President Hardings 1922 Winton Car
Hub Cap from President Hardings 1922 Winton car. Provenance attached. "I always wanted to go to AK. since I was a little boy. In 1958 I lefty my home in Montague, N.J. & drove to A.K. in my 1953 Ford Wagon. I had gone to a Barber School in N.Y. & got my license in Fairbanks & then rentd a shop in Anchorage. On my days off I drove down to the Kenay, fishing different rivers. On about the 5th trip down I went to Homer & just loved the area. I rented a barber shop there (closed the shop in Anchorage). One day a customer came in-a Homesteader-an elderly gent that had 160 acres on the Kachemak Bay. He told me about an Eskimo Indian Summer Site on the Bay & he gave me permission to go look at it. I followed a brook all the way down probably 1/4 of a mile & found the site. On the way back up the hill I spotted an old car. It had been made into a saw rig & looking over it I found it had four brass hub caps & radiator emblem. When I asked the elderly gent if I could buy them he said just take them & give him a hair cut the next time he was at Homer. He told me the old car had belonged to Pres. Harding, who came to AK. in 1922, & was staying in Seward when he became ill. He was rushed back to Washington D.C. where he died about a week later. The Winton was left in Seward where someone used it for a Taxi. Eventually the Homesteader aquired it, made the car into a saw rig, using it until thr chain saw was invented. In 1962, I opened a Barber Shop & a Antique Shop at my place in Montague N.J.. A couple of guys came into the shop & stole two of the Winston Hub Caps. i later sold one at the Hershey Flea Market (I think about 1965). So this is the only one I have left / James W. Carpenter...". Estimate: 200.00 - 300.00
