National Auctioneers Association

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Some of the lots in this sale are offered subject to a reserve. This reserve is a confidential minimum price agreed upon by the consignor & COPAKE AUCTION below which the lot will not be sold. In any event when a lot is subject to a reserve, the auctioneer may reject any bid not adequate to the value of the lot.
2. All items are sold “as is” and neither the auctioneer nor the consignor makes any warranties or representations of any kind with respect to the items, and in no event shall they be responsible for the correctness of the catalogue or other description of the physical condition, size, quality, rarity, importance, medium, provenance, period, source, origin or historical relevance of the items and no statement anywhere, whether oral or written, shall be deemed such a warranty or representation. Prospective bidders should inspect the merchandise thoroughly before bidding to determine its condition, size and whether or not it has been repaired or restored. All sales are final & refunds will not be given.
3. The auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw any merchandise before the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal.
4. The auctioneer will be the final judge as to who is the successful bidder. In the event of any dispute the auctioneer shall at his discretion decide to reopen the bidding or not.
5. As a service to our customers the COPAKE AUCTION will execute absentee bids if so authorized in writing. Absentee bids should be made on the Bidder Form available in the office. This form should be clearly and completely filled out. All absentee bids will be executed competitively during the sale. Items will be purchased for the lowest price possible regardless of the amount of the order bid. Where two absentee bidders bid the same amount the first received will be honored. This service is offered as a convenience and COPAKE AUCTION will not be responsible for any errors or failures to properly execute the bids.
6. On the fall of the auctioneers hammer, ownership to the offered lot will pass to the highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer, and as such the bidder assumes full risk and responsibility and will pay the full purchase price of the item (s).
7. All items are subject to a 18% buyer’s premium, 23% buyer’s premium for LIVEAUCTIONEERS, INVALUABLE and AUCTIONZIP which will be added to the successful bid price and is payable by the purchaser as part of the total purchase price.
8. All items are subject to an 8% sales tax unless the purchaser possesses a sales tax exemption number.
9. All accounts are to be settled by the end of the sale. We do not accept checks from first time buyers unless accompanied with a bank letter of credit or previous approval from the auctioneer. Payment may also be made by cash, Travelers Checks, MasterCard or Visa.
10. All property must be removed from the premises by 10:00 am on the following day after the sale unless other arrangements have been made with the auctioneer. Purchased items will be stored at a Copake Auction facility free of charge for (30) days after the auction. On the 31st day the items will be moved to an offsite storage facility to which they will incur the below fees:
Transportation, Handling & Administrative Fees: Small items: $40.00 per lot / Large Items: $65.00 per lot
Storage Fees: Small items: $4.00 per day / Large items: $10.00 per day
11. Bidding on any item indicates your acceptance of these terms and all other terms announced at the Auction Gallery.

- 499 New England Glass Company Candlestick
Rare 19th c. New England Glass Company, opalescent Caryatid candlestick. Pressed glass, 9 1/4" Ht.. RECORDED: cf. George S. and Helen McKearin, American Glass (Crown Publishers, New York, 1941), pl. 192 fig. 5 illus. an opalescent example in the McKearin collection, p. 285 states it "can definitely be attributed to the Boston and Sandwich Glass Company" // cf. James H. Rose, The Story of American Pressed Glass of the Lacy Period 1825-1850, exhib. cat. (The Corning Museum of Glass, Corning, New York, 1954), p. 95 no. 284, as "extremely rare, New England, c. 1840-50." // Albert C. Revi, American Pressed Glass and Figure Bottles (Thomas Nelson & Sons, New York, 1964), p. 256 // Jane Shadel Spillman, American and European Pressed Glass in the Corning Museum of Glass (The Corning Museum of Glass, Corning, New York, 1981), p. 281 no. 1107 illus. the opalescent example formerly in the McKearin collection as "Cambridge, Massachusetts, New England Glass Company, ca. 1870-1880", Long considered to be one of the rarest and most desirable of the vast array of pressed glass candlesticks made in the United States from the 1840's to the 1870's, this candlestick was long attributed to the Boston and Sandwich Glass Company, Sandwich, Massachusetts, and dated in the 1840's. Published by the McKearin as a product of the Boston and Sandwich Glass Works, and, in 1954, by the distinguished scholar/dealer James H. Rose as "New England [area], c. 1840-50," the dealer Albert C. Revi corrected the record a decade later when he discovered the papers for the patent for the design of this candlestick that was issued to Henry Whitney for the New England Glass Works, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on May 10, 1870. The candlestick was made in clear, opalescent, and various other colors, and is extremely rare in any color. Estimate: 50.00 - 100.00
